KELSEYVILLE — Eddie Money loves Konocti Harbor Resort & Spa. He's been playing music at the Kelseyville venue longer than his daughter Jessie has been alive. This time she accompanied him.

"Clear Lake, everybody. I've been coming here since before my little girl was born, he said in his thick New York vernacular.

The show began with Lake County up-and-comers, the Lost Boys and was followed by a high-energy performance by Jessie Money, the petite powerball offspring of Eddie Money. She pulled off the Ronnie Spector role in "Take Me Home Tonight," with ease and punch.

The indoor showroom was nearly filled to capacity with an audience ranging from elementary school age to white-haired fans — a kaliedoscopic view of those who enjoy timeless hits.

Christina and Kenny Rogers of Kelseyville said it was their first night out this year.

"We saw him here last year and really enjoyed the show, it was a good time," Christina Rogers said.

"Go Back," was a huge hit and indicative of Eddie Money's life challenges.

"Yeah, I wanna go back, three rehabs ago," he sang. When he finished the song he told the crowd he just got his driver's license back.

He dedicated the song "Baby Hold On," to all his "ladies from the 80s" with a rousing applause.

Aside from belting out familiar tunes in his trademark raspy voice, he also played a mean saxophone and harmonica.

The front row was dominated by mainly 20-something-year-old women who mouthed the words to his songs in perfect time. A lone man stood amid the women punching a fist in the air as the "Money Man" slapped hands, talked to the folks up front and thanked the Lost Boys.
