

The Lost Boys in the beginning

The Lost Boys, 5 teenage young men, hailing from Lake County, California, prepared for their musical career by winning a multitude of competitions, including the Ukiah Idol Competition, Ukiah Band Slam, and N. California's Rising Stars Competition. Beau Bastian (18), Jordan Mills (18), Dustin Rudiger (18), Thomas Cano (18) and Jacob Gill (15), then embarked on their rock 'n roll journey, selling out the iconic Konocti Harbor Resort and Spa Theatre regularly, and continued their 60 date, Look Out World...Tour 2009, headlining theatres and radio shows to capacity crowds.

During this inaugural tour, The Lost Boys performed as Special Guests for 20 headline artists, including 3 DOORS DOWN, ALL-AMERICAN REJECTS, KELLY CLARKSON, JOURNEY, LYNRYD SKYNYRD, TIM MCGRAW, TOBY KEITH, FOREIGNER, HEART and more!

2010 kicked off with The Lost Boys headlining the opening night ceremonies of the Orion Music Festival, in Park City, Utah, where their 5 song LIVE performance brought down the house with standing ovations!

Then it was off to Hollywood where The Lost Boys accepted their nominations by the Los Angeles Music Awards, for ROCK ALBUM and ROCK ARTIST of the YEAR. While in town, the band stopped by the D.I.Y. Music Festival where they were named the 2010 INDEPENDANT ARTIST of the YEAR. The awards and accolades continued throughout the year, and in November, The Lost Boys were officially named, the 2010 ROCK ARTIST of the YEAR, for the 20th annual Los Angeles Music Awards, where they opened the red carpet affair, at the Paramount Theatre in Hollywood! Then it was off to the Phoenix Music Awards, where the band was named the 2011 National ROCK ARTIST of the YEAR, and again, performed at another red carpet award show...this time, in Phoenix, Arizona.

The Lost Boys also hit the "big screen" during their Why Not Now...Tour 2010! NINTENDO's national advertising campaign promoting Dragon Quest IV, & starring acclaimed actor Seth Green, featured The Lost Boys performing their song I'm Not Popular. The commercials were filmed at the legendary Henry Fonda Theatre in Hollywood, and are in movie theaters nationwide, and on MTV, Nickelodeon & Disney channels throughout 2010.

And now, the band is touring in support of the new album "Running Red Lights"...which hit national stores & national radio in early 2011! The band's sophomore effort, is produced by Multi-Platinum, Multi-Grammy Award Winner, David Kershenbaum (Janet Jackson, Bryan Adams, Duran Duran, Tracy Chapman, etc.) with mixes by Multi-Platinum, Grammy Award Winner Mike Shipley (Nickelback, Maroon 5, Green Day, Aerosmith, AC/DC, etc.), with award winning mixes by U.E.G. engineer, Brian Virtue (30 Seconds to Mars, Alice in Chains, Puddle of Mudd, Jane's Addiction) and is sure to be a staple of CHR & Rock Radio for years to come !!!

They are young, they are restless, and they are READY to ROCK! They are The Lost Boys...and their FUTURE is NOW!
